

DEMOCRACY & ELECTIONS

As the president of Supremebooks.com — and having over 29 years of experience as a government contractor — I know the importance of how laws affect our business and the communities we serve. The freedom to vote provides individuals with the power they need to effectively be a part of this democratic process. Everyone should have the freedom to choose who represents them. An inclusive community makes for a better society and that is good for business.

- SANDRA CURLEY
PRESIDENT, SUPREME COMPANY WHOLESALER OF BOOKS INC., LAFAYETTE, LA

WHAT OUR NETWORK IS SAYING:

WE CAN'T COMPETE IF WE CAN'T GET ALONG
RESTRICTIVE VOTER LAWS DIVIDE COMMUNITIES AND DISCOURAGE INVESTMENT

OUR EMPLOYEES, CUSTOMERS, AND SUPPLIERS WORK HARD EVERY DAY
IT SHOULD BE EASIER TO VOTE, NOT HARDER

SMALL BUSINESS LEADERS WANT MONEY OUT OF POLITICS MORE THAN ANYONE
OUR CURRENT SYSTEM WORKS ONLY FOR INCUMBENTS AND SPECIAL INTERESTS

PROTECT THE RULE OF LAW
CORRUPTION IN GOVERNMENT RUINS OUR STATUS AS A "SAFE HAVEN" FOR BUSINESS

VOTING ISN'T POLITICS, IT'S CIVICS
BUSINESS LEADERS WORRY THAT PROMOTING VOTING RIGHTS IS TOO "POLITICAL," BUT EXPECTATIONS HAVE CHANGED
